Sequence of Course Offerings

- Main Campus
  - Every course in the program offered every semester
- Online
  - Every course in the program, except for MGT 5012, offered every semester
- SECs – Kendall, Palm Beach, Orlando, Tampa, Jacksonville, Bahamas
  - Primarily focus on offering MBA core classes (i.e., MGT 5015, MGT 5020, QNT 5040, ECN 5050, ACT 5060, MKT 5070, FIN 5080, and OPS 5095) but may occasionally teach courses from the concentration (i.e., MGT 5012, ISM 5014, MKT 5017, HRM 5030, OPS 5095)
  - Most SECs do not teach every course every term but rather have a variable course offering depending on how many clusters of students they are supporting and where those students are in their cluster sequence.
- Corporate Clusters and Miramar
  - Typically offer the program in a locked-step format, teaching two courses every term with the expectation that students who fall out of synch with their cluster will need to catch up via online courses or course at other HSBE locations.

Curricula Information

- 5 foundation courses required for program; ACTP 5001, ECNP 5003 (microeconomics) , MKTP 5005, FINP 5008 and QNTP 5002
- All foundation courses do not need to be completed before graduate level work begins however the specific foundation class must be taken prior to the required class

Day Format

Lead Professor Model

- The core classes that are common to all of the MBA programs (i.e., MGT 5015, MGT 5020, QNT 5040, ECN 5050, ACT 5060, MKT 5070, FIN 5080, and OPS 5095) are all taught under this model
- Courses are directed by a Lead Professor whose job it is to ensure consistency across all sections of a class (and modalities).

- Individual course sections are taught by an Instructional Specialist whose job is to lead the weekly learning and provide the first line of assistance to students.
- Some Lead Professors are very involved in the teaching of courses while others work more in the background, overseeing the work on the Instructional Specialist and providing assistance as necessary and appropriate.
- All courses under the Lead Professor (LP) model, even those that are ground-based, have a Blackboard component to facilitate communication between the Lead Professor and students.
